Civil Legal Aid Floridians Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

79,068
Floridians received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

48%
fewer Floridians would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the percent decrease in Floridians who would receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client’s ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau’s American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Floridians Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

79,068
Floridians received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

48%
fewer Floridians would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the number of Floridians who would not receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client’s ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau’s American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Housing-Related Legal Aid Floridians Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

22,572
Floridians received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations with housing matters such as foreclosure, eviction, and access to affordable housing in 2016.

60%
fewer Floridians would receive legal help with their housing matters without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the percent decrease in Floridians who would receive legal help with housing matters if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client’s ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Floridians received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations with housing matters such as foreclosure, eviction, and access to affordable housing in 2016.

60%
fewer Floridians would receive legal help with their housing matters without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the number of Floridians who would not receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client’s ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau’s American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Veterans Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

5,748
U.S. veterans received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

61%
fewer Florida veterans would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the percent decrease in Florida veterans who would receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client’s ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Veterans Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

5,748
U.S. veterans received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

61%
fewer Florida veterans would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the number of Floridians who would not receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client's ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Senior Citizens Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

20,470

senior citizens received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

59%

fewer Florida senior citizens would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the percent decrease in Florida senior citizens who would receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client's ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Senior Citizens Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

20,470
senior citizens received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

59%
fewer Florida senior citizens would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the number of Floridians who would not receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client's ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Abuse Survivors Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

7,749 survivors of domestic abuse and child neglect/abuse received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

40% fewer Florida abuse survivors would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the percent decrease in Florida abuse survivors served if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client's ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau’s American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Abuse Survivors Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

7,749 survivors of domestic abuse and child neglect/abuse received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

40% fewer Florida abuse survivors would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the number of Floridians who would not receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client’s ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau’s American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Women and Children Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

55,046
women and children received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

49%
fewer Florida women and children would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the percent decrease in Florida women and children served if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client's ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).
Civil Legal Aid Florida Women and Children Would Lose Without Legal Services Corporation-Funded Organizations

55,046
women and children received help from Florida civil legal aid organizations in 2016.

49%
fewer Florida women and children would receive legal help without LSC-funded organizations.

This map shows the impact to each congressional district in terms of the number of Floridians who would not receive legal help if there were no LSC-funded organizations.

Case closure data from the Florida Bar Foundation for 2016. Congressional district is based on the client’s ZIP code. Civil legal aid eligibility estimates are from the U.S. Census Bureau’s American Community Survey 2012-2016 5-year estimates for income <125% of the Federal Poverty Level (Table S1701).